

INVITATION

GENEVA BAR ASSOCIATION, FOREIGN LAWYERS SECTION 7TH ANNUAL FUTURE OF LAWYERS CONFERENCE WOMEN AS LEADERS IN THE LAW

WHERE: Lalive, 35, Rue de la Mairie, Geneva

WHEN: Thursday, January 25, 2018

Registration: 5:30 pm

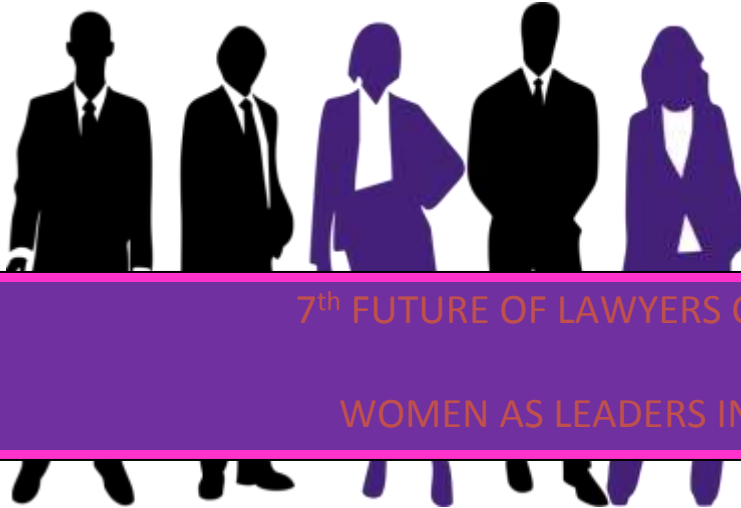

Conference: 6pm to 7:30pm

Networking Aperitif: 7:30pm to 8:30pm, Sponsored by: SwissGlobal Language Services AG

RSVP: sabe@odage.ch

Sharing of stories to provide inspiration both to women and men to promote women as leaders in the legal profession, discussion, and action.

7th FUTURE OF LAWYERS CONFERENCE

WOMEN AS LEADERS IN THE LAW

Moderator: Karen A. Monroe, Managing Partner, Wilk Auslander LLP, Geneva, immediate past President, Foreign Lawyers Section of the Geneva Bar Association; American and Swiss, admitted in New York

Speakers:

Domitille Baizeau, Co-managing Partner at Lalive, holds leadership positions in a number of organizations. New Zealand and France; admitted in New Zealand, England and Wales and Geneva (previously in Foreign Lawyers Section); based in Geneva

Nicola Benz, Managing Partner, Froriep Legal. Dual-qualified Scottish and Swiss lawyer, involved in a number of international organizations. Scottish, admitted in Switzerland; based in Zurich

Birgit Sambeth Glasner, Partner and Co-Head of the Dispute Resolution Team at Altenburger; Vice President of the Swiss Bar Association, former executive Committee member of the Geneva Bar Association; National representative for Switzerland at the UIA Union Internationale des Avocats. Formerly German now Swiss, admitted in Switzerland; based in Geneva

Lionel Halpérin, Vice-Chairman, Geneva Bar Association; Partner at Ming Halpérin Burger Inaudi. Swiss, admitted in Switzerland; based in Geneva

Dean Camille Nelson, Dean Washington College of Law, American University, Washington D.C., previously served as the Dean of Suffolk University's School of Law in Boston. Jamaican and Canadian; admitted in Canada and New York; based in Washington, D.C.

THANK YOU TO LALIVE FOR HOSTING THIS EVENT